

SKILLS CONNECT

First Time Management in the Hospice Sector

This course is designed to provide a grounding in management and leadership theory. This training has been designed to enhance practical skills in managing people to effectively deliver team objectives as well as contributing more fully to the wider organisation.

Course Overview

In this course you will learn various modules which will be delivered using practical examples and scenarios from hospice and care settings.

Modules included in this course are:

- Leadership Styles
- Motivational and engagement skills
- Communication skills
- Managing Change – In uncertain environments
- Finance for non-financial managers
- Time management, including workload and stress management
- Confidence building, self-awareness and career development
- Effective delegation and negotiation

If you are interested in this course, please complete the contact form. It will take around 2 minutes to complete.