

SKILLS CONNECT

TRAIN - Train the Trainer

Enhance your training skills with our 'TRAIN'ing the Trainer course. Learn various teaching techniques and adapt them to different learners and situations. Gain confidence in delivering engaging training sessions and effectively manage difficult learners and classroom dynamics. Develop assessment and evaluation strategies and acquire essential instructional design skills to create impactful training materials. Suitable for new and experienced trainers, HR professionals, team leaders, and educators looking to refine their skills and create engaging training experiences.

Course Overview

By completing the "TRAIN"ing the Trainer course, you will:

- Gain a deep understanding of teaching techniques and how to adapt them to different learners and situations.
- Enhance your confidence and skills in delivering engaging training sessions.
- Develop strategies for handling challenging learners and managing classroom dynamics effectively.
- Learn how to assess learner progress and evaluate the effectiveness of your training initiatives.
- Acquire essential instructional design skills to create impactful training materials and engaging learning activities.

If you are interested in this course, please complete the contact form. It will take around 2 minutes to complete.